

Klove is an important part of our home. We are raising our children in a home filled with purity and truth. These are values that they certainly wouldn't receive listening to secular music. My children would be missing an important part of their entertainment if klove were to be taken away. We all need the influence of God and klove provides it to all.